PRESIDENTS REPORT

There is no President's report for December and January. The Christmas dinner was very well attended and everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Rae used one of her various talents to make miniature knitted stockings which held a candy cane and handed them out to each member. I put mine on my 60cm Christmas tree and will do so for years to come. Thanks, Rae.

Santa arrived and with his helpers, presents were handed out. Santa had some fun with some members. (take a look at the photos following).

I am not sure who played bowls, but I am sure the games were enjoyed by those who partook of the exercise.

The January picnic was also well attended. Thanks to those who took on the cooking duties and those who did the shopping.

I was not able to attend due to an important meeting in Toowoomba.

Back to the usual reports next month.

Message from Chris and Ron

Chris has asked me to pass onto to all members a heart-felt thank you for all the good wishes, visits and the card from members. Chris is finding life challenging at the moment but is sure she will "get through this".

We have some very caring members in the club and it is at times like this that I am glad to be a member.

Ron is coping with hospital visits and meals. Their daughter, Shannon and grandchildren were visiting over Christmas break but have now returned to Tasmania. While here, Shannon sometimes wore a turban in support of Chris.

Keep on smiling, Chris. You are a genuine person and so many of us miss you at the club.
