Roving Report from Kenilworth Showgrounds by Rae Williamson

Thursday, on my rather late arrival At Kenilworth Showgrounds, I found 7 vans set up. I was sited and set up thanks to 2 kind gentlemen. We had one late arrival around 6.00 pm.

9 vans in all.

During the afternoon two of the ladies walked into town for coffee, finding the coffee shop closed they spent an enjoyable hour at the pub nice shandies and Air conditioning.

Later in the afternoon some of the ladies visited the pool and a new use for pool noodles was discovered by some.

Happy Hour was spent under the trees. Very HAPPY it was too. During the evening a storm appeared on the horizon and we all sat watched the lightning show. Col tried to catch photos of the show but to no avail nature was just too quick for him. Rain eventually arrived and we all retired to our vans.

On Friday the first van arrived at 10 am. Followed later by more. By Friday night we had 16 vans on site. Once again the ladies visited the pool, this time having a lot of fun with balls. People did their own thing until Happy Hour. We sat out under the trees again for happy hour but the weather beat us this time and the rain came tumbling down. It was remarked that is it only water, but it did clear the decks.

Saturday was spent doing your own thing until it was time for the afternoon activity. After the activity we met for Happy Hour.

After dinner we went to the Pony Club building for more activities, after which the cards came out and much laughter flowed over the games.

The exodus started on Sunday morning and only 9 vans were left for Happy Hour. The rain started just at that time and we all crowded into the entrance of the hall. Nice and cosy but dry. St. Paddy was celebrated, and a good night was had by all.

All in all a very good Rally, thank you to all for making it so.

Activity Report from Kenilworth Showgrounds by Toni and Nida Cuzzolaro

AFTERNOON ACTIVITIES

Col and Lyle with the support of Helen and Rick set up a great afternoon of Disc Bowls at this months' Kenilworth rally. The activity organisers set up 3 rectangular playing courts where teams battled it out to reach the finals, with all participants wearing a splash of green to celebrate St Patrick's day. With the aim to score as many points as possible, the games sparked the competitive streak in some, with super keen players getting in some practise before the start.

There was a good display of skills from many players but in the end the final two couples left to battle it out were Rick and Helen H against Macca and Trevor. After 4 rounds Rick and Helen H came out on top becoming the Kenilworth Rally Disc Bowl Champions. Congrats Rick and Helen H and well played all players. Many thanks to the organisers for an enjoyable afternoon of entertainment.

A very Happy Birthday for the month of March to Andy, Vicki G, John H.

Congratulations to our anniversary couples John and Helen and Toni and Nida.

The raffle winners this month Andy and Dave.

EVENING ACTIVITIES

Helen and Rick organised a brain bending quiz evening where couples and individuals exercised their knowledge of Australian towns and Smithsonian questions such as 24 = H in a D. The first quiz saw a tie between Team Macca and Toni and Team John and Helen. The second quiz was a won by Rod and Gayle with Rae coming second. Well done to all.

Treasurer's Report

Thank you to everyone for your cooperation with our new way of paying the rally fees. I was really pleased it went well. No complaints here.
Stay well everyone.
Kim (PCC Treasurer)

Secretary's Report

Kenilworth Showgrounds hosted 16 of our club members in the past week. Four of our members were absent due to health concerns, and we wish them a speedy recovery. The showgrounds caretaker did a great job of planning where to put vans from 4 clubs who were also there. Col had made extra sets of disc bowls and we enjoyed a very competitive afternoon on Sat. Whilst most of the members went to the local on Friday evening the rest of the club enjoyed a fantastic sound and light show with lots of precipitation. Sunday evening the few Irish members hyped it up with music and dance and a lot of laughs.
Thanks for the shopper dockets. The totals were $920 accommodation, $897 for dining, Spent $931, Fuel $757 making a total of $3305
We all had a great rally.

Gossip Line for Kenilworth Rally

- Who was having trouble seeing the difference between St Patrick, St Peter, St George and St Michael?
- Who told an Irish joke but forgot which Saints day it was on March 17th?
- Who looked better in Rod's swim shirt than Rod? (only just though)
- Which three ladies had lots fun and laughter riding their noodles in the pool?
- Who played with noodles and balls in the pool?
- Which short person wanted to have a four step advantage in disc bowls?
- Who combined mince meat, onion, Guinness stout and pastry etc to make the best 40 Guinness pies? (Raising the bar even higher.)
- Which lady couldn't go out to dinner because she had a flat battery?
- Who were the brainiacs who won the second quiz? (of course)
- Who waited until it rained before arriving at the rally?
- Who won the disc bowls and didn't show off?
- Which activity saw everyone competing in their St Pat's finery on the 16th March?!?
- Which President said that he got the most point in the quiz? Liar, liar, Pants on fire!
- Whose dog squatted, drew breath, and peed on Rod's best sandals and his foot?
- Who was the clever member who made extra discs for the disc bowls?

We had a good turnout of 15 RV's for Kenilworth with some members unable to attend due to ill health and the extreme hot weather.

Hope you get well soon and can make it to the next one at Allawah Scout Camp.

We may even get a bonfire happening as the nights will be getting cooler.
