Roving Report from Allawah Scout Camp by Diana

With a beautiful destination on the edge of the very picturesque Brisbane River, Wednesday saw half a dozen vans arrive with the rest filling in the spaces over the next two days. Long leads and hoses criss-crossed camp by the time Mark and I arrived to a laid back atmosphere on Friday afternoon. After setting up, we were informed that Gidget was having a 1st Birthday Party and everyone was invited! The four legged guests were treated to “Pupcakes” made by Kim. They would have been edible by the two legged guests but for the doggy choc on top! With pink party hats tolerated by most dogs, we sang Happy Birthday and goody bags were distributed to take home. Some members ventured out to Karalee Tavern for Friday night dinner, then sat around the fire in a jovial mood. Saturday saw some going for morning tea to Colleges Crossing, others slaving over hot coals ready for Hot pot and Damper cooking. Delicious smells were wafting around camp from mid-morning. Many great photos were taken of wildlife and River scenery over the course of the Rally. Visitors this Rally were Ray and Sabina and Darryl and Barbara. New members Chris and Rod Meier were inducted and also performed an impromptu dance as they were actually married at Allawah Scout Camp!

Kindly written by Rae - Roving Report for Thursday night.

Following the age-old ANZAC tradition, we had a game of two up. We were asked to bring 5 and 10 cent coins to bet with. This was organised by the Grand High Poohbah Dalai Lama Six Pack, AKA Ken. We arrived to find the arena set, (a blanket on the ground) A table for placing bets, A big H on one side For Heads and an empty toilet roll on the other side for tails. The GHPDLSP, explained the rules for tossing the coins, and the betting system, and after calling “Place your bets” tossed the coins for the first time. There was much delight from the winners, and a few groans from the losers, but all backed up again with more bets for each toss of the coins. The game lasted about an hour with many changes of the Spinner during that time. A lot of fun was had with a few winners and a few losers. Thank You Ken for a great time.

Activity Report from Allawah Scout Camp

The smoke was filling Allawah Scout Camp throughout the day on Saturday as our pyromaniacs fed the large fire in preparation for the camp oven cook-off. At 2 pm, camp ovens dotted the fire, the hungry audience witnessing the anxiety of the chefs. Many secret recipes were whispered about. As 3 pm arrived, dampers started appearing on the table. The selection of dampers were amazing. Alan made a traditional damper (number 1 was undercooked but number 2 was perfect), Col cooked a coconut cream damper. Noel and Yvonne’s choice was a pumpkin soup damper with Rod making a beer damper. Brian and Loretta chose to enter a bacon and cheese damper. Mark & Diana entered their brie surprise. Rod G made bread and Daryl and Barb created a spinach and cheese creation. Di and Rob entered a pizza and Kim made pumpkin scones and a sultana loaf. Our winners were ... Alan Howard first with traditional damper mark 2. Second was Diana & Mark with their brie surprise. Loretta and Brian came third with their cheese and bacon damper. Noel and Yvonne’s sweet potato damper was fourth with Daryl and Barbara’s spinach, fetta and prosciutto in fifth place. Di and Rob Howard’s pizza received an honourable mention. The raffle was won by Rae. The shared dinner afterwards was enjoyable with a large variety of dishes followed by dessert and Rae's Easter eggs filled with Baileys.

Treasurer's Report

Another great rally at Allawah.
The rally fees total was $1590 and the raffle was $106.
Thanks everyone for your support.
Kim (PCC Treasurer)

Secretary's Report

Allawah Scout camp is on the Allawah road near Mt Crosbie. The camp is situated on the Brisbane river and a most pleasant, peaceful scene looking up and downstream.
Nineteen vans attended and everyone was accommodated comfortably. The weather stayed nice for the entire duration and the evenings mild. Wood was plentiful and the fires were very nice in the evening.
We inducted two new people into the club, Rod and Chris. Next month another two and the following month another two.
It was great to see the 'Sheriff' and Bev return to the fold. We missed them.
The judging at the camp oven cook off was fair, but even though I did have the best damper, my partner was one of the judges. I had to concede to Shorty taking the gold cup.
The shopper dockets amounted to $4,191.00

Gossip Line for Allawah Rally

Who left home without his teeth?
Who knocked a glass of wine over on the "new table"?
Once again who hasn't learned NOT to give older people a fright? Child!
Who was the champion damper maker who made two dampers because the first was underdone by five minutes?
Who had a new nickname "M B"?
Who was throwing rose petals outside their van to entice their partner "Inside"?
Who said "We're going to make love" but had forgotten how?
Who put his hand on someone's pet arachnid? And got the fright of his life.
Who has 2 eye candies living next door? (Who wouldn't know what to do with them if she did catch them!)
Who's leaving for the National rally on the third week of October?
Who has got the biggest?
Who kept a pet spider to frighten "Miss Muffet" away?
Which important member has arachnophobia? Who weakened and rescued him?
Who said they were bored/board/bawd when they went camping in the rain on their honeymoon?
Who couldn't work out why his camera was black (his fat thumb was over the lens)?
Who will be looking for a "Willy" replacement next?
Who excelled himself looking after the fire at the cook off?

We had a great turnout for our Rally at Allawah Scout Camp. Everyone enjoyed sitting by the fire at night and throughout the day.

A few stories were told and some drinking of wine was mandatory, I believe. 😊

Our next rally is at Kilcoy Show Grounds 15th to 20th May. At 26 Showgrounds Rd, Woolmar QLD 4515

Cost is $16 per night, per site.
