Next Month's Rally—Kilkivan Caravan Park & Bush
Camp 577 Rossmore Rd Kilkivan 4600

Wednesday 17th July to Monday 22nd July

*Phone Ralph ASAP for your booking 5484 1340

Kilkivan Bush Camping and Caravan Park is nestled in the foothills of the Oakview State Forest, next to Fat Hen Creek, where you can relax in total peace. It's a great Aussie bush setting away from the noise and rush of city life. The area is also well known for its birdlife. Campers, caravans and motorhomes can all find spacious sites in the park, with good shade and with or without power and water. There is always plenty of room, even at the busiest of times. You will also find plenty of fireplaces and BBQ points around the park as well. Some wood is usually available, or you can bring your own to help out.

What happened at Beaudesert Showgrounds....

Roving Report from Beaudesert by Les

The vans began to gather on Thursday to enjoy some magical 'winter' weather. Seven vans had arrived by happy hour. Another five vans arrived on Friday. A few drivers were watching their GPS devices rather than the roadside signs and missed the new Beaudesert Road turnoff from the Logan motorway. They enjoyed a couple of extra 'beeps' from the toll tags as they made a turn to get back onto the motorway so they could get off again.

A couple of drivers must have left in a hurry as they forgot to bring their spouses. Not really, but we did miss Gayle and Dianna. The nights were not as cold as anticipated and Saturday was another beautiful day. With no Ken to organise a 'drive' it was a walk down town in the morning. Dave and Doreen arrived back to find some club members had taken over their table and chairs for an impromptu gathering under their awning.

Mark was seen carrying Bev's chair over to happy hour. He'll be president one day that boy. The raffle was won by Barry and Barbara. We wished a happy birthday to Eric, Dave B and Barbara R. Sunday dawned overcast with light rain. A few members managed to pack up after morning tea while it wasn't raining. One member did not quite time it right and had to finish packing up in light rain. Six vans stayed on for the day and we enjoyed a pleasant happy hour in the evening.

This was the last rally for Bev and Eric for this year as they head off to the national rally. We wish them, and the others who are travelling in the second half of the year, happy holidays and safe travels and we look forward to hearing all the stories on their return.

Activity Report from Beaudesert by Barbara & Darryl

We had two activities organised for the Saturday

1 ...a game of Klop organised by Dianne and Rob.

2 ...a trivia quiz that was different. Organised by Barrie and Barb.

The game of Klop consists of 12 numbered wooden pegs that are lined up on the ground . The aim is to throw a chuck and knock over the pegs. The first to 50 wins.

It was a hotly contested game with one player trying to gain an advantage by not standing behind the line, another was observed trying to screw the pegs into the ground , sneaky!

Rae was a little confused as to where the pegs were and did a spectacular high shot

( the pegs are on the ground Rae ,not in the tree) □

The climax of the game came when Les, with great skill knocked over the 5 pin to give him a score of 50! Well done Les!

The bowl of chocolates were spilled ,and Les bent over to help pick them up and wore a chocolate wrapper for his effort from Bernie...suffice to say he had a cracking good time!

The night activity hosted by Barrie and Barb was a series of trivia questions that made us think outside the box.

We soon found that there is always more than one answer to a question, and some, way outside the box! The winner was Bev.

Well done Bev !

We were then given a blank map of Asia and asked to fill in the different countries 1 to 41 ( collective groans all round! )

This really challenged the old brain cells with some interesting answers. The (Stans ) proved confusing and many countries magically popped up thousands of kilometres from their original position.....

Lots of laughs!

Rod was the winner , well done Rod!

This wrapped up the activities for the day

A fun day for all involved.

Many thanks Dianne and Rob and Barrie and Barb.

Treasurer's Report

Hi everyone.

A big thank you to Bernie for doing the treasurer's job for me as we were unable to make the rally at the last minute.

Due to the small attendance the raffle was $56 and the rally fees $836.

See you at Kilkivan.

Kim (PCC Treasurer)

Secretary's Report

I think most of the vans that attended this rally were expecting rain and cold - no! Although it did rain for a short while on Sunday and then we resumed with mild sunny weather.

No problems with water or power.

A short walk to the Coles and RSL. The hotel was also frequented with members saying the meals were enormous.

Even though the van numbers were down we had a fun time. The activity was not as risqué as last month. But we enjoyed it.

Beaudesert will always remind me of people standing in front of the Post Office trying to find out what it had in common with Alice in Wonderland.

Eric and Bev are on their way to the west.

Shopper Dockets amounted to $2333

Secretary PCCI

Gossip Line for Beaudesert Rally

Who had no injuries for the whole rally, so no whinging?

Who tried to get TV reception for 4 days trying 4 different antennas?

Who just loves his shiny black boots?

Who is the most gullible member and is good for passing on gossip?

Who pretended to write items for gossip line - nothing?

Who didn't come to the rally so didn't buy any glassware?

Who left the Op shops until the weekend but didn't know Beaudesert doesn't open Op shops on weekends?

Who was really beside himself when he discovered gluten free beer?

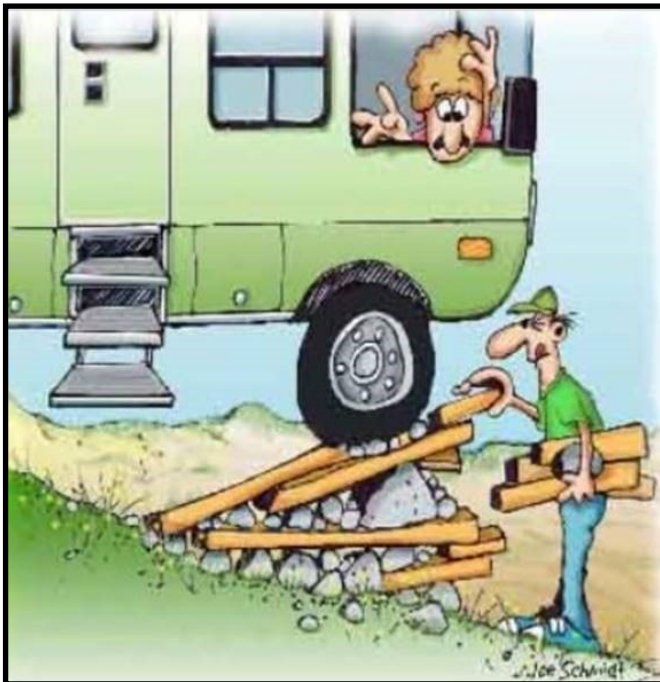

Whose van tried to go back home without them?

Who sat on his reading glasses? Oh dear.

Who lost a screw off his car?

Who got lost going to the RSL ? (one block away)

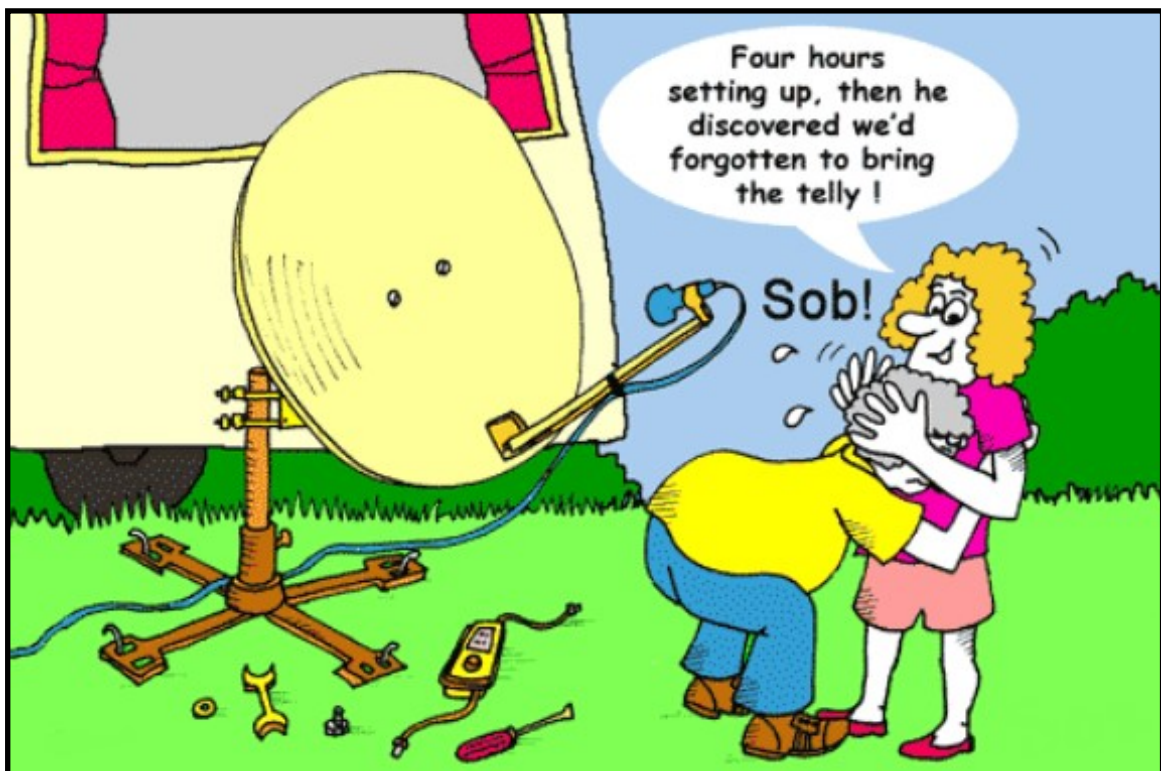

Hello to all of Members who are currently on the road,
