What happened at Imbil....

Activity Report from Imbil by Col and Lyle

Sign-on for Bikers was at 1.30 pm. Ladies picked a man's name out of a bucket to be her racing partner. (No spouses together) The race track was set up under the big trees, and a sea of blue was under the gazebo. Rain was threatening! We were given 4 commands for the driver (man) to steer the bike (lady) Not sure if we liked being called a 'bike'. Go / Left / Right / Stop. No talking allowed while on the race track. Lady was blind-folded, putting her trust in the partner. She had handlebars to hold. Bike had to stop before crossing the finish line.

Yvonne W kept making her own course as she couldn't understand Paul's taps and got in her own little world and kept walking while Paul just stood there, flabbergasted.

Bernie did some side-shuffles to get back on track.

Lyle did a few U-turns and travelled way too many kms.

Neil took some 'reverse' liberties with Doreen as hubby, Dave, looked on in case he had to rescue her. LOL.

Chris kicked the 1st witches-hat over before getting on track. Evon wasn't going to have a race until she was partnered with Rick, and then he took a 3 second penalty instead of getting Evon to do a U-turn to the last gate.

Rod M was steering Gayle as she marched along confidently.

Dave H steered Rae who took her walking stick along for the ride.

Last were 2 boys. Bike Warren and Rider Noel. Noel had to push his bike into line when it didn't follow his lead.

A lot of hilarious moments, no casualties and enough rain off & on to bring the brollies ☐☐ out. The winning team was our very competitive Helen H with Dave S, in a time of 1.42.93, both receiving a toy motor bike. ☐☐. Helen only just beat her very competitive hubby, John (& Debbie S) by 6 seconds at a time of 1.56.76, Poor John ☐ Thank you to organisers, Bev & Eric, a great time was had by all.

At Happy Hour Birthdays for Andy, Vickie G and John H were celebrated with cake from Nida & Toni. Anniversaries for Helen & John, Chris & Rod and Nida & Toni were also celebrated. Barbara & Barrie supplied a basket of gluten-free food which was gratefully won by Yvonne & Noel. Left over prizes from last month were given out with Col winning 1st choice and chose a bottle of red wine.

Thank you to organisers for the rally, Bev, Eric, Nida & Toni.

Roving Report - Imbil - Great Venue

Wednesday early arrivals

Ken & Kim, Lyle & Col, Chris & Rod,

Thursday early arrivals

Rod & Gail, Neil & Glenda, Ray & Sabine, Eric & , Noel & Yvonne, Warren & Elaine, Ray, Graham & Evon, Dave & Deb, Dave & Andy

Friday arrivals

I lost count but Dave & Doreen, John & Helen, Paul & Vicky, Mick & Faye, Mark, Rick & Helen, Paul & Vicki, Les & Bernie My apologies for those I missed. 23 vans were expected.

Had a day visit from Vicki's mum Sandra & her husband. We welcomed visitors Wendy & ?

On Friday, Ken and Kim had a great lunch at the Kandanga Pub and checked out the camping area at the bowls club.

Exciting stories came from the 4WD group on Saturday morning. There were 5 cars going through the forest dirt and wet roads. 2 cars got out by themselves but the rest got bogged. Feedback was that Helen was trapped in their vehicle and scared. Rod and Chris went ahead to clear the way for the others but then they got bogged. Fortunately they were able to get out themselves. BUT Shorty was the hero of the day with his winch rescuing the Hunters. I think all in all they had a fun morning except maybe ???

Friday night was alfresco on the footpath outside the Imbil Pub. 24 members attended most enjoying a great steak.

Markets were the big attraction on Sunday morning however a total of 4 stalls it was disappointing. Glenda was prevented from going to the market in her car since she couldn't open her car door due to mud build up from Niel's driving through the forest on Saturday morning.

Yvonne and Noel won a traffic raffle of gluten free and vegan free food. Thanks to Barry and Barbara for your generosity.

Another lot of excitement happened when a snake appeared in the grill of Rod and Gail's campervan but brave Rod chased it back into the bush.

Lots of different experienced by all.

Weekend ended with a great campfire that Ken put together on the Sunday night.

Happy camping everyone.

Imbil Rally Report

Another great weekend for everyone.

A few light showers didn't stop the adventurous driving through the State forest on Saturday. The river views from our sites were lovely too.

Unfortunately our next rally at Boonah showgrounds as been cancelled due to Corona virus.

Treasurers Report

The raffle by Barrie & Barbara took $140 which I think is the most taken so far. Well done.

As you all know by now it is with a sad heart but Ken and I have resigned from the club. I am more than happy to go through the Treasurers files and help the new Treasurer settle if needed.

The past 6 years has been a big part of our life and left us with many wonderful memories. Thank you all for your friendship over this time.

Peace, Good health and happy travels in the future.

Sincerely
Kim
