A note from your Secretary..

The rally at Kirra was in not too many words interesting. We had lots of wind and some members being attracted to the dark side and the activity caused a little confusion.

As you all know Glenda fell ill on Saturday afternoon and Neil took her to the hospital were she stayed over night comfortable. I'm sure you all would like to wish her a speedy recovery and send her your best wishes but I'm sure Neil will let us all know in due cause so please be patient, fortunately we were close to a well equipped hospital.

Your committee has discussed several times health issues so it is important to us all that each member be prepared, especially if you are on prescribed medication or just not feeling the best.

On something different now preparation for the xmas luncheon is on target for 5th December so if you haven't already done let Helen Hunter know of you preferences.

Cheers Rick

What happened at Kirra Beach....

Saturday Morning Report - Kirra Beach

A group of our cars decided to venture to Cougal Cascades. This was a short, but very nice, drive along the Currumbin Valley out past Currumbin Rock Pools into the foot hills of Springbrook National Park. There were some magnificent stands of trees that we drove through and also one acreage block with flowering Jacarandas near the road, manicured lawns (lots of them) and a majestic house. It looked like a million bucks (and probably was).

On arriving at Cougal Cascades car park there was an acute shortage of parking spaces. After some innovative positioning of vehicles, we wandered up the walking track (all bitumen) to the cascades. There were a number of people there enjoying the water and also at the other swimming holes on Currumbin creek, which explained the shortage of parking. We then continued up the track to a semi restored sawmill which ceased operation in 1951, a special year for a couple of the walkers. It was a pleasant walk down hill to the cars.

On the return trip we stopped at the Om (as in ooommm) Café and were entertained by a tradie there while waiting for our mourning tea. It was then a short drive back to Kirra after a very pleasant morning.

Activity Report - Kirra Beach

What a fantastic activity. Who better to ask than the two couples on the roster at Kirra. A quick change of plans as one of the group was very unwell and ended up at John Flynn Hospital.

The activity was started with a fun pass the parcel with the music and the person who received it unwrapped the parcel when the music stopped. They read the note and got a sweet, passing it on when the music started. The last unwrapping person to receive the parcel got the prize. This was won by Elaine.

We then had a break and did the birthdays and anniversaries. Neil then took Glenda to hospital. Dave and Andy then proceeded with the Aussie map quiz which was won by Les. With still some time left, Dave and Andy then gave the group 30 cryptic town in Queensland quizzes. Les also won this. But everyone got a packet of chips, chocolates and assortment of sweets.

Roving Report - Kirra Beach

The rally this month was a bit smaller with ten vans arriving on Thursday and two more on Friday. There were three who did take a wrong turn and ended up in N.S.W. but we won't mention names. The Kirra Beach Caravan Park was lovely with lots of shady trees, close to the beaches, cafes, drives to be done, and plenty of walking for some. The weather was lovely most of the time, just one day that was overcast and windy.

Friday afternoon the Gazebos were put together by a few of the men with help from Helen H seeming to be doing some overseeing and Gayle doing a good job of Supervising everyone.

Dinner Friday night at the North Kirra Surf Club was well attended and I'm sure no one went home hungry as there was so much food on everyone's plates. One couple had decided to stay home, so they would have had a nice peaceful evening as it was very noisy at the club and none of us were lucky to come away winning a raffle. Better luck next time.

Sunday, after the Saturday activities, was quiet with most people doing their own thing and Monday was the end of another great rally although a few of us did stay on for an extra day so Happy Hour on Monday was very small.

See you at the Christmas Party.

Elaine & Warren

TREASURER'S REPORT

What a great stay we had at the Kirra Caravan Park. We had 12 vans in attendance. Rod and Gail were in charge of running the raffle this time and a thank you to both of them for donating the prize of an inflatable air chair for two. This was won by Helen and John and I am sure they will enjoy using it in their pool. The raffle raised $55.00.

The club Christmas Party is up next on the 5th December commencing at 11am and I am looking forward to seeing you all attend. We are glad that the club has sufficient funds to cover the cost of the Christmas Meal of all our members and will subsidise half the cost of the meal for our associate members. Please remember to bring a gift for the Secret Santa to the value of $10.00.
