Secretary Report Marburg

Well things haven't changed much over the years, have they? I am still being sent to the naughty corner, this time with no power (just kidding Helen H). All in all a good few days were had by all, a little chilly but we all survived. Good to see some old faces again, whoops people we haven't seen for awhile sounds better.

The talks from Barry and Theresa Roberts from the QCC and Gary from Towing Aides were interesting to say the least.

Shopper Dockets total $2500 plus Not bad for just a few vans.

OK that's enough from me, See you all at Pomona.

Cheers Rick.

Activity Report Marburg

New disc bowls was a huge success thanks for the support we got from Helen R, Rick, Diana and Mark.

The cold wind was a handicap for all of us.

Teams were organised on a round robin basis such that everyone had the same number of games to play and were not waiting too long for their next turn.

It was much appreciated that the players picked up their disks.

The winning team were Helen H & Rod. A Special encouragement award went to Di and Ann.

Cheers

Dave & Andy

Roving Report Marburg

The Marburg rally was attended by eleven RV's with 7 arriving on Thursday with another 4 on Friday.

On Thursday a few members roamed Marburg checking out the antiques with other going further afield find their bearings.

Friday saw many of us go our own ways some for drives while other just chilled. Literally.

On Friday night the majority headed out to the Marburg Hotel for a great meal & a chat. On return back to the showgrounds some sat around Dave's fire while other retreated to the hall for a game of cards & a chat.

On Saturday morning we had a visit from Barry and Theresa Roberts from the Kookaburra Club representing the QCC who provided information & answered questions regarding the operation & benefits of the QCC.

The Disk Bowls activity was a lot of fun as usual with Helen H & Rod the final victors.

Gary from Total Towing Setups at Griffin then gave us an informative talk regarding tow vehicle & caravan weight distribution setup.

The June celebrations for birthdays were for Helen Hunter, Gayle McHutchinson & Eric Byng & our Anniversary couple Ann & Derek.

Sunday afternoon we all gathered around the fire pits and that night Les showed some photos from his & Bernie's trip to the Grand Canyon. Later some of us then spent a pleasant evening chatting around the fire pits.

Monday saw the usual mass exodus home.

Safe travels & see you next month at Pomona.

Rally Coordinators Report

Another Great rally. Thank you to all our members attending Marburg Showgrounds.

Days were warm and nights very cold, but everyone was happy to sit by the fire and enjoy a wine or two.

Our next rally is at Pomona Showgrounds. Cost is $26.00 per night. Please advise asap if attending or not attending. Unfortunately Fire pits are not allowed.

Please remember you need to book Imbil Retreat Caravan Park for August, Dicky Beach Caravan Park for November & Coolum Caravan Park for February 2022.

Just a reminder that I'm not running for Rally Coordinator next year and I'm still looking for a member to shadow me for the position. Remember No Rally Coordinator No Rallies!!

Treasurers Report

Our rally at Marburg is over. Time just seems to fly when we are all away together and having fun. The weather was mild and the nights were cold.

Attendance numbers were down for this past weekend but that was the only thing that was down. Fellowship was high on the agenda.

There was some confusion regarding who was doing the raffle this month but not to worry it soon got sorted out with prizes to spare and to put aside for another rally. Di and Rob did the raffle and raised $55 for the club.

Thank you all members for your support.
